

Case Summary: The Stealing of Emily Newbold-Smith

Website front-page record placed first at the user's request

Public source: <https://www.stealingofamily.world/>

Captured: 15 August 2026

Submitted on the website: 31 July 2026

Purpose stated by Martin Newbold on the public front page

Martin Newbold presents the case on his website as a request for disclosure, an independent criminal investigation, and confirmation of Emily's safety and whereabouts. The following preserves the key identifying data and requests he has published on that front page; it does not treat allegations made by Martin Newbold as independently proven facts.

Subject	Emily Newbold-Smith
Date of birth shown	30 October 2006
Age when removed shown	4 years old
Year of removal shown	2009
Current status shown	Whereabouts unknown for 19 years
Original court shown	Hastings Family Court, before Judge Hollis
Court reference shown	HBC100055
Appeal shown	2011/1029
Money court reference shown	640MC413
Key official named	Social Worker Christine Elizabeth Stirling

What Martin Newbold says happened

Martin Newbold says Emily was removed during Family Court proceedings in 2009; that a Northern Ireland placement was said to rely on a disputed genealogy/genogram; and that Social Work Northern Ireland reported holding no record of that placement. He presents the archive as an attempt to establish what happened, obtain records, locate Emily, and confirm her safety and whereabouts.

Requests made by Martin Newbold on the front page

Martin Newbold asks for a formal investigation reference, release of court/social-work/placement records, an independent criminal investigation into the allegations he raises, confirmation of Emily's safety and whereabouts, and written acknowledgement/update.

IMPORTANT: the consistency audit on page 3 identifies conflicting date fields. This page preserves the website position; it does not validate the conflicting fields.

Police Investigation Handling - Documentary Position

This section separates direct third-party correspondence from Martin Newbold's own account.

1 November 2024 - Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland

The chronological archive contains an email from Ikenna Okorie at the Police Ombudsman. It states that an investigation into Martin Newbold's complaint against police had commenced. The email summarises the complaint as involving a daughter who was unaccounted for, police refusing to lodge a missing-person request, and an online request under references CC2040900 / 1582/2009/04 being open for only two days before closure.

Evidential status: direct third-party correspondence reproduced in the archive (archive pp. 167-168). It is a Police Ombudsman summary of the complaint; it is not itself a finding that the underlying allegation was proved.

9 June 2026 - Surrey Police

The archive contains a direct email from T/Detective Superintendent Kate Hyder 40281, Child Protection - Central Public Protection, stating: "I can confirm Surrey are not part of any investigation in relation to Emily nor have we been previously."

Evidential status: direct Surrey Police email in the archive (archive p. 306).

12 June 2026 - Surrey Police transfer to Sussex

A later direct email from Kate Hyder states that Surrey recorded the information Martin Newbold provided on CAD and transferred it to Sussex Police for further enquiries, and that further enquiries should be directed to Sussex Police.

Evidential status: direct Surrey Police email in the archive (archive p. 306).

20 May 2026 call - recorded account

Martin Newbold's records state that he received/spoke on a private-number police call at about 09:45 lasting 30 minutes 14 seconds, spoke with Elen/Ellen badge 18592, and was told the information would be put before Inspector 40550. The same account appears on the public mailout page and in subsequent correspondence to Surrey Police.

Evidential status: Martin Newbold's recorded account and subsequent correspondence. The archive shows Surrey Police accepted that information had been recorded on CAD and transferred to Sussex, but the reviewed material does not by itself establish that a substantive missing-person investigation was opened by Sussex.

Due-diligence conclusion

The reviewed record supports a narrower and more defensible public statement than "police will not investigate": a missing-person request was described by the Police Ombudsman as refused and then closed after two days; Surrey Police later stated that it was not and had never been part of an investigation into Emily, while also confirming it recorded information on CAD and transferred it to Sussex Police for further enquiries. A direct Sussex Police decision opening, refusing, or closing a substantive Emily missing-person investigation was not identified in the material reviewed for this front section.

Data Consistency Audit

Website front page compared with the uploaded 316-page chronological archive

Field	Website front page	Chronological archive	Due-diligence finding
Date of birth	30 October 2006	Older records repeatedly use 30/10/2006; several May 2026 MP mailouts use 30/06/2006.	CONFLICT. 30 June appears in later mailouts and should not be silently treated as the same date.
Age / removal year	Age 4; removal in 2009	Archive contains statements linking safeguarding/removal to 2009.	ARITHMETIC CONFLICT. A child born 30 Oct 2006 would be age 2 or 3 during 2009, not 4.
Duration missing	Whereabouts unknown for 19 years	Archive repeatedly states Emily went missing in 2017 from a home in Newry.	CONFLICT. 19 years does not align with either a 2009 removal or a 2017 disappearance as of 2026.
Court ref HBC100055	Displayed	Exact-text search found no match in the 316-page export.	NOT LOCATED BY EXACT-TEXT SEARCH. This does not prove the reference is absent from underlying files.
Appeal 2011/1029	Displayed	Exact-text search found no match in the 316-page export.	NOT LOCATED BY EXACT-TEXT SEARCH. Verify against original court paperwork.
640MC413	Displayed as Money Court	Archive repeatedly identifies 640MC413 as Martin Newbold v Nationwide Building Society.	SEPARATE CIVIL MONEY CLAIM. It should not be presented as the original Emily family-court case reference.
Missing date / place	Front page does not give 2017 as the missing date	Multiple archive records state "went missing in 2017 from a home in Newry, NI".	MATERIAL CHRONOLOGY POINT. Needs reconciliation with removal/placement chronology.

Recommended correction before publication

Do not decide these conflicts by assumption. Use the underlying birth record and original court/placement papers to settle the DOB, removal date/age, and court references. The bundle therefore preserves both versions and marks the conflict rather than rewriting the record.

Police and Missing-Person Timeline

Selected entries relevant to whether the missing-person concern was recorded, investigated, transferred or closed

Date	Record	What it supports
2017 (as stated in later correspondence)	Martin Newbold correspondence in archive	States Emily went missing from a home in Newry, Northern Ireland; lists references 270917-1200, 270917-1258, 270917-1393, CC2040900 and 1582/2009/04.
1 Nov 2024	Ikenna Okorie, Police Ombudsman	Confirms investigation into complaint against police commenced; summarises alleged refusal to lodge missing-person request and closure of online request after two days.
2 Nov 2024	Martin Newbold to Ikenna Okorie	Confirms that the Ombudsman summary of his allegations was accurate.
20 May 2026	Martin Newbold recorded account	Private-number police call; Elen/Ellen 18592; information said to be placed before Inspector 40550; 30:14 duration.
9 Jun 2026	Kate Hyder 40281, Surrey Police	Directly states Surrey was not part of an investigation concerning Emily and had not been previously.
12 Jun 2026	Kate Hyder 40281, Surrey Police	Directly states Surrey recorded information on CAD and transferred it to Sussex Police for further enquiries.

Open evidential question

The source bundle shows a transfer from Surrey to Sussex for "further enquiries". This front review did not identify a direct Sussex Police document that clearly states whether Sussex opened a missing-person investigation, declined one, or later closed one. That exact decision record should be sought and added if available.

Capture limitation

The site is dynamic. "All tabs" in this front section means all internal navigation tabs visible from the public favorites/navigation bar were checked. Where an automated crawler could not retrieve a dynamic directory/gallery, that limitation is stated rather than replacing the missing content with an assumption.

Tab: About

<https://stealingofamily.world/about/>

The About page describes Emily World as a research-driven platform intended to organise fragmented records, support search/filtering and visual exploration, and make difficult information easier to review.

Statements on the page concerning Emily

- The page states that the site contains real information relating to Emily's disappearance.
- It states that Emily remains missing and has not been located by local authorities.
- It presents the purpose as obtaining clear answers about her location, the records held, and how public systems handled the matter.
- It invites anyone with useful information to make contact.

Evidential treatment

These are statements made by the website. They should be cited as Martin Newbold's published case position unless supported elsewhere by an independent document. The police correspondence and archive extracts in this bundle are used separately where there is direct third-party support.

Tab: Youtoob

<https://stealingofemily.world/Youtoob/>

The Youtoob tab is a video/archive interface with Home, Videos, Shorts, Live, Playlists, Posts and Store views. The page groups content into educational guides, "Where Is Emily?", news/interviews, The Stealing of Emily works, meetings/interviews/complaints, and podcasts.

Representative Emily-related entries visible at capture

- Where Is Emily By Martin Newbold
- The Abduction of Emily
- Nineteen Years
- A Father's Plea
- Proof Ignored
- The Stealing of Emily
- Where is Emily
- The Black Book
- Social Work England
- The Department for Education
- Run Children Run Run Run

Educational / documentary material visible at capture

- How to create Habeas Corpus documents
- How to file ECHR Rule 39 material
- How to report human trafficking to the ECHR
- News/interview items and recorded meetings/complaint material.

Note

The video titles are an index to the site's published material. Their inclusion does not independently verify factual allegations made within the videos.

Tab: E-Wiki

<https://stealingofamily.world/wiki/>

The E-Wiki page is a public profile and bibliography for Martin Peter Newbold. It records his author, songwriter and conservation activity, lists published books including The Stealing of Emily series, and links to public records and media references.

Relevance to this bundle

This page supplies authorship/context for the archive rather than direct evidence of Emily's location or police handling. It is included because it is one of the site's internal navigation tabs.

The bibliography includes the sequence of The Stealing of Emily books, music and dramatic work, while the public-record section lists planning, tribunal, company and charity references. Those materials are not treated as proof of the missing-person allegations in this bundle.

Tab: Oversight Flights

<https://stealingofamily.world/drive/index.php>

The direct dynamic page could not be opened by the crawler without a query parameter, but indexed site search exposed a "House Oversight Flight Search" interface. It provides OCR search, passenger/person filtering, source images, OCR status, file IDs, and route-related information.

Due-diligence rule for this tab

A person's name appearing in a flight log, diary, message record, OCR result, people list, court filing or other indexed source does not by itself establish wrongdoing, knowledge of wrongdoing, travel on a particular flight, or involvement in Emily's case. Every result must be read against its underlying source image/document and status (for example, "parsed" or "needs_review").

The indexed search page also warns through its data state that complete routes may not be available for a result set. This means route conclusions should not be inferred from partial OCR records.

Tab: Court Records

<https://stealingofamily.world/drive/court-records/>

At capture the page displayed 39 case folders and warned that some folders were not yet populated and file counts could be incomplete. It also contains a distressing-content warning.

Important separation of case references

The first displayed folder is "640MC413 Newbold vs Nationwide" with 20 associated files. The uploaded chronological archive independently identifies 640MC413 as Martin Newbold v Nationwide Building Society. This is a separate civil money claim and should not be mistaken for the original Hastings Family Court / Emily proceedings.

Other visible folders are predominantly U.S. Epstein/Maxwell-related court cases, including Giuffre v. Maxwell, Giuffre v. Prince Andrew, United States v. Epstein, United States v. Maxwell and other civil/criminal matters. Their presence in this site browser is contextual archive material; it does not create a factual connection to Emily without separate evidence.

Tabs: Photos and Oversight Gallery

Photos: https://stealingofamily.world/Emily_photos_scans

Oversight Gallery:

https://www.stealingofamily.world/drive/HOUSE_OVERSIGHT_FILES/

Both navigation targets were identified from the live site. In this review, the automated web crawler returned an internal/cache error rather than the underlying gallery contents.

What is recorded here

- The URLs and their presence in the site navigation are preserved.
- No attempt has been made to invent a list of images or captions that could not be retrieved.
- The appended chronological archive itself contains many file entries for images, PDFs and other evidential material, and preserves those references in their original sequence.

If these gallery directories are later exported as a static index or PDF, they can be appended as a further exhibit without changing this bundle's existing pagination.

Tab: Calendar

<https://stealingofamily.world/calendar/>

The calendar interface provides search across sender, recipient, subject or message, person filtering, week/month navigation and an "Open full email" control. At capture, the crawler could see the interface and July 2026 calendar controls, but the detailed event bodies are dynamically loaded.

Relationship to the appended archive

The chronological archive is the stronger static evidential representation for this bundle because it provides 316 pages of date-ordered entries. The calendar remains useful as an interactive navigation route back to the public site.

Evidence labels used in this front section

- Direct third-party record: email/document authored by an external organisation or official and reproduced in the archive.
- Martin Newbold recorded account: a statement, email, transcript summary or web publication created by Martin Newbold.
- Website assertion: current public wording on stealingofamily.world, preserved as the site position rather than treated automatically as established fact.
- Consistency issue: two or more source fields that cannot all be correct as written.

Integrity note

The original appendix pages are merged into this PDF without rewriting their content. This front section identifies discrepancies rather than silently correcting the underlying archive. If a disputed fact is material to proceedings, the original underlying email, recording, court document or statutory record should be produced alongside the archive extract.

16 Jan 2019, 00:00 FOR IMMEDIATE FAST TRACKING :Re: Adoption Agency Caught Illegally Registering Births and request for mandatory doc ...

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Darren Newberry

Dear Sir, I am not confused . I have already contacted the General Record Office in UK. My daughter Emily, was I believed in long term foster care having been removed from their mother. I believe Christine Stirling formally of east Sussex Social Services falsified documents in court posing them as expert reports to family court was routinely sending children to Ireland under this regime. The last whereabouts of my daughter was in Newry, Northern Ireland where she has been at school at Sacred Heart. why would the GRO in England hold this document. When it is clear this scam has been uncovered to falsify documents: <https://www.breakingnews.ie/ireland/agency-in-adoption-scandal-enters-voluntar...>

Dear Madam Thank you for your kind communication from your Private Secretary this morning sadly I write with regard to the chaotic feeble information I am currently being provided by the GRONI. My expectation for delivery of this information is much higher and feeling my family is being let down by this organisations inability to provide consequential correct registration of birth and adoption information. which was requested out of concern for her well being. I feel you may have the answer as to why this has occurred and would be grateful of your confidence in this matter. Dear Cressida Dick , and all those at NPAS, which I have been in communication with, Good Morning , I am more than happy to provide you with this information of a personal nature. In this email chain .Clearly there is a grave alleged criminal fraternity in our government which is palpable to criminal behaviour. I would like your opinion on these matters and develop a function to eliminate this sort of inward behavior in the government . As Mrs Longmore is the holder of the post of -The Children's Commissioner, it shows the inability of this Country of ours, to remove itself from the abuse and torrid corruption of our children. Complaint: I write regard to required mediation under all practice guides of law which is requirement to enter the English Court System. This is currently not forthcoming for either government department . I sent letter with new evidence under 2021-00-44184. Which demanded a reply . Al that has been done is your help line 0370 000 2288 addressed the matter as a decision from 2020 . This is not good enough and does not show Department of Education in Good light. Clearly I expect you to obey the law . This does not appear to be evident . Can you please explain why you feel you are exempt from English Law? Clearly I am clearly disappointed that such two government departments would make little...

Dear Mr Newbold, Thank you for your emails. We informed you on 16th December 2021 that your complaint was not ready for our consideration, as you had not provided any responses from the Department of Education to your complaint. As we are the final stage of the Department of Education's complaints process, we can only consider a complaint about them once their own internal complaints procedure has been fully exhausted and you have received final response directing you towards our service. The same applies for any organisation we consider complaints about. Further information on the Department for Education's complaints process can be found on their website at <https://www.gov.uk/government/o...>

Dear Martin Newbold Thank you for your email. I can confirm that an internal review of your Freedom of Information (FOI) request will be carried out as requested and we will aim to respond by 28 February 2022. Your email states that you do not believe that we have dealt with your FOI request correctly. It would be helpful if you could please clarify which part(s) of your FOI request you believe we have not complied with, and what you were hoping to receive that has not been provided. The Care Review Team 8th February 2022 Please provide a proper contact point name and named responder. I will be happy to discuss these points with you further . You will note I have sent further requests dated 8th February 2022. yesterday spoke to the ICO for over an hour which resulted in 'an offer' which will expire on the morning of 10th of February 2022 . I understand the ICO may have some technical problems with their software. It was alleged by the Group Manager that the ICO team cannot print case correspondence in accordance to act in a transparent manner. This would seem limiting in their operations. Perhaps I should book a day to go up and train them on their site software? CC: My L....

Dear Liam, Stephen , Matt Beswick and PHSO Investigator, I refer you to my recorded call with Bev this morning which she stated an information request was not a complaint . People also ask! How do I complain about a freedom of information request? How to complain about an FOI request 1. Stage 1: Internal FOI review. 2. Stage 2: Complain to the ICO about the FOI.... 3. Stage 3: Go to the Information Tribunal.... 4. Stage 4: Go to the higher courts. 5. More in this guide: 8 Feb 2015

Jane Howard-Smith Office Manager to Sally-Ann Hart MP Member of Parliament for Hastings and Rye Swallow House, Theaklen Drive St Leonards on Sea , East Sussex, TN38 9AZ 01424 716756 jane.howardsmith@parliament.uk 30th April 2022 Dear Jane Howard Smith , I should not have to point out that my daughter and my family's human rights are being violated as addressed in my correspondence in every letter to date. I contacted the pay manager general in the cabinet last week. There was possibly a child or children hanging up the telephone more than 25 times . I had to get some friends to call him and then he answered . I asked him if he was responsible for human rights violations which are gagging th...

CC: ICO CASEWORK 31st April 2022 I should also point out as previously the reader of my letters had been cushioned from experiencing the full horror of events, but in the final section, the events are laid bare. The horror begins with the attack on my family by a gang of ruthless social workers driven by greed to obtain monies by deception at any cost violating human rights of families rights and in breach of their own acts of operation and allo...

I expected the Children's Commissioner to attend a Zoom meeting that was held yesterday , Clearly, she abstained. I therefore serve these questions as FOIR/SAR pertinent to the General Protection Data Act. "The dirty secret is now out! According to the published NSPCA document, half a million children who have been kidnapped from the mainland, taken to Northern Ireland are left out on a limb and in danger. Is it not the definition of theft when a person is guilty of theft if he or she dishonestly appropriates property belonging to another with the intention of permanently depriving the other of it? It currently costs approximately a million pound per child in care. Would it not be more cost...

Dear Sir, I write with regard to my representation, GGS745701, in response to your new inquiry. I expected, as detailed on these new inquiry internet pages, to have been provided with a response detailing my representation and how, when, and at what stage I could amplify this representation. I presume you have a program officer, and I would be grateful if you asked her or him to contact me directly. Good Afternoon, Thank you for recently contacting Social Work England. I note that you have requested that somebody contact you in relation to the above concern that you recently raised with us as you believe it has not been investigated. An email was sent to you on 6 June 2023 explaining why this is and I have attached a copy of the same email however, I shall try to explain the position of Social Work England again for you. We can only consider concerns about individuals who are currently registered with Social Work England. Having checked our register, Christine Stirling is not currently registered with Social Work England. As such, we are unable to consider the concerns you have raised...

Dear NCPCC As I stated I am on my third book in its trilogy with no resolution! The new book will be an expose of the past and the future and what misery it will cause our children. I have reported Social Work England to The Information Commissioners Office! My books, with all three bounds will be sent to the highest court in the land. So, they might read what unjust situations they are creating for our children. For my child and three others it is to late they are left wondering about their parents and cannot fathom who they are as a certificated registers have been corrupted by social workers . Part of Maggy Tuttle 'children screaming to be heard' generation. But that's ok, isn't it, NOT...

The letter serves as a reminder to Mr. Page about his confidentiality and privacy obligations related to his role in Royalty Protection with the Metropolitan Police Service. It emphasizes the unique and privileged nature of this role, requiring high degrees of public service, integrity, confidentiality, and respect for those protected. The letter states that breaching these obligations, even after leaving the service, could have serious consequences, including damage to trustworthiness and integrity. It also notes that these obligations extend to matters of public interest where criminals or issues relating to national security are evident, and in such cases, reporting directly to the polic...

Our role is to receive child protection concerns, assess the concerns raised and share with the most appropriate agency such as Children's Services or the Police if necessary. Our role is not to investigate concerns or visit families, rather to share the information with the agencies in the locality of the child. It is the role of that agency to then safeguard the child or children as well as putting possible support in place for the family if this is needed....

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Felicity Aspinall

Dear Felicity I have already pointed out to you that the Trust has been acting unlawfully in regard to the children in its care and consent breaches of the Law. Even the ICO has identified this, why not the NSPCC? From your document of control it reads THE NATIONAL SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO CHILDREN <https://register-of-charities.charitycommission.gov.uk/charity-search/-/charity-details/216401/charity-overview> Activities - how the charity spends its money 1) TO PREVENT THE PUBLIC AND PRIVATE WRONGS OF CHILDREN AND THE CORRUPTION OF THEIR MORALS; 2) TO TAKE ACTION FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS FOR THEIR PROTECTION; 3) TO PROVIDE AND MAINTAIN AN ORGANISATION FOR THE ABOVE OBJECTS;...

The Stealing of Emily (3 book series) The image displays the covers of a three-book series titled "The Stealing of Emily." Each cover depicts different illustrations related to children and the legal system. * Book 1: Features a scale of justice, a pointing finger, and a young girl. The subtitle is "The Fantasy | Stealth Philosoph." * Book 2: Shows two girls, one older and one younger, walking away from the viewer through a window. The subtitle is "(FATE OF CHILDREN THROUGH OUR COURT SYSTEM)." A QR code is also visible. * Book 3: Illustrates a courtroom scene with a judge's head peeking out and a woman walking through a door. The subtitle refers to "Procedures 'Secret Courts'."...

Dear Sir/Madam, I am writing to express my concerns and frustration as a published author regarding a recent issue I have encountered on Wikipedia, which is operated by the Wikimedia Foundation. My username is [Martinnewbold], and I have been a contributor to Wikipedia for [1 month]. On [23:08, 1st June 2024], my account was blocked by Wikipedia administrators for the reason of being a promotion/advertising-only account. Additionally, my user page was deleted on [07:15, 3rd June 2024], citing misuse of Wikipedia as a web host. I firmly believe that these actions were unwarranted and based on a misunderstanding of my contributions. I want to clarify that my intention was not to engage in pro...

Dear Wikipedia Administrators, I am writing to appeal the block placed on my account and the deletion of my user page. According to the block log entry and deletion log: On 3rd June 2024, my account was blocked by Fastily for being a promotion/advertising-only account. On 1st June 2024, Fastily deleted my user page, citing misuse of Wikipedia as a web host. I would like to provide context and seek clarification regarding these actions. My contributions were based on the template of the Harry Potter page, specifically "Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone." I aimed to provide relevant information about my book in a similar format. However, it appears there may have been a misunderstanding...

Urgent Assistance Needed Hello, I am in need of urgent assistance regarding the deletion of my user page and the indefinite block on my account. I have been trying to resolve these issues through the usual channels but have encountered several obstacles. Background: On 23:08, 1 June 2024, my user page was deleted by administrator Fastily, citing "misuse of Wikipedia as a web host" (U5). Subsequently, on 3 June 2024, my account was indefinitely blocked by the same administrator for allegedly being a promotion/advertising-only account. Issues Encountered: - Technical Issues with the UTRS System: I have attempted to appeal through the Unblock Ticket Request System (UTRS), but the provided link...

Urgent Assistance Needed Hello, I need urgent assistance regarding my Wikipedia user account and the deletion of my user page. My account, Martinnewbold , was indefinitely blocked on June 3, 2024, after my user page was deleted on June 1, 2024, by administrator Fastily , citing "misuse of Wikipedia as a web host" (U5). Details of the Issue: - I created and edited an article about my book using the format of the "Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone" page as a template. My intent was to provide structured and informational content, not promotional material. - I believe my contributions were misunderstood and misinterpreted as advertising. Problems Encountered with the Appeal Process: ...

Geoffrey Lane Thank you for your email and for addressing the issues surrounding the denial of my Wikipedia article. I am writing to express my concerns regarding the actions taken by the administrator, Fastily. It appears that there may have been some uncertainty in their decision-making process. For instance, a discussion on the matter included a request to remove Talk Page Access (TPA) with the comment, "@Fastily, can you (or another admin) please consider removing TPA? This is a time sink." [Mathglot (talk), 3 June 2024, 17:41 UTC]. This suggests a lack of clarity or confidence in the actions taken. Additionally, there seems to be an inconsistency regarding user activity transparency. U...

Thank you for your email and for addressing the issues surrounding the denial of my Wikipedia article. I am writing to express my concerns regarding the actions taken by the administrator, Fastily. It appears that there may have been some uncertainty in their decision-making process. For instance, a discussion on the matter included a request to remove Talk Page Access (TPA) with the comment, "@Fastily, can you (or another admin) please consider removing TPA? This is a time sink." [Mathglot (talk), 3 June 2024, 17:41 UTC]. This suggests a lack of clarity or confidence in the actions taken. Additionally, there seems to be an inconsistency regarding user activity transparency. Unlike most con...

Dear Geoffrey Lane, Thank you for your response regarding the block on Martin Newbold's Wikipedia account. I understand that queries related to blocks are not handled by this inbox. Could you please direct me to the appropriate process or contacts for disputing the block? I am aware of the appeals that have been made and would like to understand if there are any further steps that can be taken within Wikipedia's framework to resolve this issue. Given the ongoing issues and the lack of resolution through the standard Wikipedia channels, I would like to escalate this matter further. Could you please provide me with the contact details of the regulatory body that oversees the actions of the Wi...

Thank you for your email. Thank you for reaching out. I appreciate the opportunity to address the concerns regarding the denial of service for my Wikipedia article. It seems there are discrepancies regarding the content guidelines, particularly in relation to the inclusion of material based on "Harry Potter" while my article was rejected. I understand that consistency is crucial in enforcing content policies. However, it appears there may have been a misunderstanding or oversight in this instance. The presence of "Harry Potter" articles on Wikipedia suggests a precedent for similar content, which makes the denial of my article perplexing. To better understand the rationale behind the decisi...

Unfortunately though, Wikimedia UK can't fulfil your GDPR request because we simply don't have that data. I have no more access to Wikipedia than you yourself, as a contributor. Wikimedia UK works with cultural institutions to open up content under an open license, we work with education institutions to develop information literacy skills and we support editors and other volunteers through training and events; but we do not have any legal control over Wikipedia's content or community-governed moderation processes. Please note the Wikimedia Foundation generally does not write, edit, or curate articles or other content on Wikipedia or its sister projects. That effort is conducted by the global community of volunteer users. This includes decisions made by volunteer contributors to block user accounts. Email | From: Joanne McGurk

I followed up with Joanne McGurk regarding my request for the Northern Ireland Commissioner for Children and Young People (NICCY) to meet with my daughter, Emily Newbold-Smith. I expressed my concern about the lack of progress on this request, especially given that Emily's mother is deceased and she has extended family in England who could support her. In my email, I reiterated the ongoing issues I have raised about Emily's situation, particularly the court proceedings that led to her removal from my care in England and her subsequent placement in Northern Ireland. I clarified that there is currently no active court case related to these matters, despite NICCY's typical remit not covering c...

Good morning Mr Newbold Thank you for contacting the Commissioner for Victims of Crime Office. Based on the information provided in your email, your query would not fall within the remit of the Commissioner for Victims of Crime Office. The Commission is unable to advocate in individual cases and the remit the Office is to make recommendations to improve the Criminal Justice System and the agencies that operate within that based on the evidence and experience of victims of crime. I would suggest contacting the Information Commissioners Office regarding any concerns you have in relation to the failure to adhere to Fol /SAR requests. I understand that individual cases fall outside the Office's scope. However, I want to express that the situation involves serious concerns that may extend beyond the failure to respond to FOI/SAR requests. The ongoing issues suggest that Southern Regional College may not be operating as a legitimate educational institution but rather engaging in activities that raise significant legal and ethical questions. There is substantial evidence to suggest that the site, which is purported to be a college, may actually be involved in housing children under Deprivation...

To Whom It May Concern, I am writing to formally submit a complaint regarding the handling of my daughter Emily's case, as well as concerns surrounding Southern Regional College (SRC) and their involvement in potentially unlawful actions. My daughter's rights and welfare have been compromised through gross negligence and failures to adhere to legal safeguards. Key Areas of Concern: 1. Unlawful Relocation and Violation of Legal Limits: My daughter Emily, born in Sussex on the mainland, was relocated approximately 500 miles away from her home. This action violates the legal requirements outlined in the Children Act 1989 (Section 22C(9)(b)) and the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 (Artic...

Urgent Request for Reconsideration of NICCY's Responsibilities

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Joanne McGurk <Joanne@niccy.org>

Dear Ms. McGurk, Thank you for your clarification. However, I must express my concern regarding the continued refusal to engage with the substantive issues I have raised. While you have referred to the remit of the Northern Ireland Commissioner for Children and Young People (NICCY), I believe that my case clearly falls within NICCY's obligations under the Commissioner for Children and Young People (Northern Ireland) Order 2003. Failure to Address Core Concerns My complaint concerns the ongoing actions of public authorities in Northern Ireland, particularly the Health and Social Care Trust, and their statutory duty to safeguard the rights and welfare of my daughter. When I wrote later to Alex Tennant and Scott Robinson on 11th September, I stated in summary. In navigating the labyrinth of jurisdictional authority and court orders, the case of my daughter serves as a poignant reminder of the fragility of children's welfare within overlapping legal frameworks. The proceedings began in England, where Emily was born, yet the court order ultimately placed her in a precarious environment in Northern Ireland. This shift raises critical questions about the validity and transparency of a system that conducted a Closed Material Hearing without parental presence, violating the principles set out in the Children Act 1989, which mandates that the welfare of the chil...

According to MP Sally-Ann Hart's election manifesto, it was noted that East Sussex was bailed out by the government to the tune of £5.3 million. Given that each child in Local Authority care costs around €330,000 per year, this raises serious concerns about the justification for such an expenditure of approx £9.5 million on SEND or remote care. Dear Danny Pike, BBC Radio, I would be grateful if you could ask Keith Glazier to explain himself regarding the nearly £10 million spent on children taken from East Sussex, Norfolk, and Kent and placed in Northern Ireland. According to MP Sally-Ann Hart's election manifesto, it was noted that East Sussex was bailed out by the government to the tune of £5.3 million. Given that each child in Local Authority care costs around €330,000 per year, this raises serious concerns about the justification for such an expenditure of approx £9.5 million on SEND or remote care. Additionally, the Children Act 1989, Section 22C(9)(b), and the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995, Article 27, clearly state...

Dear Alex Tennant and Scott Robinson, I am writing regarding the lack of response to my correspondence dated September 11, 2024, concerning serious issues related to child mental health support and potential breaches of duty by Newry Social Services in Northern Ireland. My complaint raised crucial points that deserve immediate attention, and to date, I have received no acknowledgment or update. As outlined in my original message, the situation involved failures in safeguarding practices and potential violations of legal protocols under Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards (DoLS). It is troubling that your reliance on statistics lacks identifiable features of the cases involved. Could you please outline the merits of this case as you see them? Understanding your perspective is crucial for my ongoing advocacy for children's rights in our region.

Urgent: Toxic Judicial Proceedings and Systemic Failures in Northern Ireland

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: nolan@bbc.co.uk

Dear Nolan, I am writing to bring attention to the toxic judicial proceedings in Northern Ireland and the incompetence of the GRO. These proceedings, coupled with the system's apathy, have left children in dire need of help, with no effective support from a system that is clearly not fit for purpose. As highlighted on my website, thestealingofamily.co.uk, both The Irish Times and TULSA have stated that the care system is failing. It is deeply concerning that the judges involved in these cases appear to be acting without indemnity and possibly without proper jurisdiction. Additionally, I am reaching out to NICCY regarding my daughter's case, part of half a million children abducted from the...

Dear Stephen Nolan Show Team, I have been blocked for 13 years with institutional fraud, which has not only affected me but also my daughter, Emily, and half a million other children. According to an NSPCC briefing document and the latest report by Lord Darzi, half a million children now require urgent mental health care. This crisis is presumably caused by the illegal separation and coercion of children, particularly from areas such as East Sussex, Kent, and Norfolk, where the same Children's Director and Social Services Manager have been operating. These individuals have been responsible for producing what I refer to as "sexed- up" reports, distorting the reality of these children's situa...

I followed this up with a communication and as a summary On September 12, 2024, I followed up with the Northern Ireland Commissioner for Children and Young People regarding my previous correspondence on September 11, 2024, and the assigned case number NICCY09/24-01. In this communication, I clarified my use of the term "kangaroo court," which I employed to describe what I perceive as a farcical legal process orchestrated by the Local Authority to unlawfully abduct my children. This situation arose as I sought a residence order due to my partner's mental health struggles, leading me to temporarily take my daughter Emily in an effort to alleviate familial strain. I wanted to update you on my recent experience with the Northern Ireland Commissioner regarding my complaint. Initially, I was pleased to hear that my concerns were being taken seriously. However, after following up on September 24, 2024, I learned that the police triage team could not locate any new escalation report from either the police in Newry or anywhere else in the UK. This raised significant concerns about how my complaint is being handled. When I spoke with them today, they could not explain why the escalation had not progressed, but mentioned that the Children's Commissioner would write to me despite the lack of a proper police investigation. Frustrated, I reached out to the Comm...

Dear Alex Tennant, Thank you for your response dated September 27, 2024. I would like to clarify that in my previous email to you on September 25, 2024, I provided the names of the relevant officers related to my complaint. I understand the importance of following the complaints procedure and the need for clarity in my complaint against NICCY. However, several months have already passed; should I conclude from this that you are all waiting until my daughter is 18 to respond? Additionally, I am confident that I will provide a document chain for the Southern Health and Social Care Trust, which depicts what other services have summarized as unlawful behavior. If you require any further details...

Dear Mr Newbold, I am responding to you rather than copying in other individuals or bodies, only copying in our Human Resources Officer, as my correspondence with you relates solely to our complaints procedure. I have attached my email from Tuesday afternoon in which I outline what is needed for me to take forward your complaint. I understand that you have gathered a great deal of information that relates to your daughter, but I must ask that you clarify the basis of your complaint against NICCY, using the format outlined in the policy and my email. This is very important for me to then move forward to investigate your complaint. Once you have submitted this, I will be able to provide a tim...

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Alex Tennant <Alex@NICCY.ORG>; Security@icc-cpi.int

Dear Mr. Tennant, Facts I am writing to formally address the serious matters regarding the unlawful removal of my daughter, which I previously outlined in my correspondence. Under Section 46, the burden of proof has been established concerning the kidnapping, trespass, and abduction as detailed in Section 3 of the Fraud Act. Notice of Serious Misconduct: I am concerned about the potential collusion involving a legal professional who has been concealing meeting and attendance notes, as well as other pertinent evidence related to this case. This conduct is reminiscent of Turner, Rv | [2000] EWCA Crim 27, which addresses the destruction of evidence-a serious offense that could amount to fraud....

Despite my request for your team to meet with my daughter more than two months ago, no action has been taken, leaving her in a precarious and vulnerable situation. It is evident that my daughter, along with thousands of other children, has been relocated over 500 miles from her home, in direct violation of the legal mandate that children should not be moved more than 50 miles away from their parental home without exceptional circumstances. Dear Information Officer, I would like to inquire whether the handling of these legal letters to your principal legal team is merely a delay tactic. It seems that your legal team is often offline, aloof, or incommunicad Additionally, I am concerned that the cuts to these services may be related to the £45 million deficit in the social services bill. Shouldn't this situation warrant a reassessment of p perhaps moving away from a more indulgent approach to one that favors a more sustainable and responsible allocation of resources? Furthermore, I have noticed that communications sent to the following recipients-inforequests-icw@eastsussex.gov.uk, karen.boles@eastsussex.gov.uk, Press. Office@ea...

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Customer Relations Team <csdfeedback-icw@eastsussex.gov.uk>

Dear Polly Walsh, Thank you for your email. However, I have noticed that communications were sent to the following recipients: • inforequests-icw@eastsussex.gov.uk • karen.boles@eastsussex.gov.uk • Press.Office@eastsussex.gov.uk • john.webb@eastsussex.gov.uk have all been invalid, resulting in error 550. Does this not seem avoidant of your legal responsibilities? In fact, there have been recent communications with East Sussex and complaints going back 13 years regarding my daughter's illegal abduction from her residence by systems that break the Care Acts. You have not addressed any of these: Information Request (Ref: 19554222) Copies of Communications: Could you please provide me with copi...

Dear Polly Walsh, Thank you for your response. While I appreciate your reference to the 12-month timeframe for raising complaints, I would like to draw your attention to Regulation 9(3) of the Local Authority Social Services and National Health Service Complaints (England) Regulations 2009. This regulation specifically provides that complaints may be investigated beyond the standard 12-month period when there is a valid reason for the delay, where it is still possible to investigate the matter effectively, and where the subject matter relates to significant public concern or poses ongoing risks—particularly in safeguarding matters. The issues I have raised, including serious concerns regard...

Dear Polly Walsh, I am writing to formally request that my previous complaint, which you state has gone through the established complaint procedure, be reopened in accordance with relevant regulations. I believe that the seriousness of the issues raised, particularly in regard to potential criminal activity, requires further investigation. Under the Local Authority Social Services and National Health Service Complaints (England) Regulations 2009, Section 13 of the regulations allows local authorities to review a decision or reopen a complaint if new information emerges or if there are issues significant enough to warrant further investigation, including cases that could involve criminality....

Customer Services and Information Governance Team East Sussex County Council Re: Subject Access Request (Ref: 19567481) Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Judice Dear Sir/Madam, I am writing to formally serve you with a writ of habeas corpus, a legal remedy against unlawful detention as described in English law. The writ of habeas corpus, historically referenced by William Blackstone, is a court order demanding that a detainee be brought before the court so the custodian can provide legal justification for their detention. If the custodian lacks lawful authority, the prisoner must be released. This writ can be issued by the court when a person is illegally confined, and the court must assess the lega...

Dear Sir/Madam, I am writing to bring to your attention the conduct of your East Sussex County Council (ESCC) office in relation to the illegal trafficking of children, particularly those around the age of four. Despite my repeated efforts to highlight this obscene act, no corrective action has been taken despite ongoing complaints for thirteen years and four books on the criminal subject. Recent press articles have indicated that these actions have resulted in gross negligence and a significant debt of £55 million for ESCC. The financial shortfall, fueled by greed/avarist rather than care for fellow human beings, is set to increase to £83 million by 2028 based on your own projections. This...

I am writing to formally request a statement of service regarding the procedures followed in accordance with the Criminal Procedure Rules (CrimPR). This request is particularly pertinent in light of serious allegations concerning the misappropriation of public funds. As per CrimPR 6 - Service of Documents, documents must be served in a manner that ensures the recipient is properly notified and has the opportunity to respond. It is essential that I receive this information to understand my rights and obligations fully. In my previous correspondence, particularly my Subject Access Request (Ref: 19567481) concerning Habeas Corpus Ad Judice, I raised significant allegations against the council,...

Dear Keith Glazier, On Radio Sussex at 7:04 AM, it was announced that Sussex County Council is facing foreclosure while attempting to recover £70 million over the next two years. This urgent recovery effort comes in the context of an alarming £55 million debt that the council is already grappling with. Catherine Hyde's mother, a regular attendee at the Phoenix Centre for elderly individuals, relies on the dementia services offered in Lewes, which provide her with a vital lifeline. The centre enables her to socialize with others and participate in a variety of activities that would otherwise be unavailable to her. However, concerns are mounting that these essential services may soon face sev...

Dear Keith Glazier, I am writing to express my concerns regarding children's care in East Sussex, which is reportedly in debt due to the mismanagement of the £55 million budget. It is alarming to hear from various sources, including the press, that the children's care being provided is not fit for purpose, raising serious questions about the effectiveness of this spending. Lindon Court, the Phoenix Centre, and Crowborough Centre are crucial services that support vulnerable people in East Sussex, providing essential care and support to adults in need. However, Keith Glazier has stated that he needs to save £75 million, putting these adult day centres at risk of closure or reduced services. T...

14 Oct 2024, 00:00 Inquiry Regarding Council Debt and Service Accountability

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com>

Dear Mr. Glazier, I hope this message finds you well. Following the recent announcements regarding Sussex County Council's attempts to recover £70 million amid a staggering £55 million debt, I have several pressing concerns that I would like to address. I kindly request that you explore this matter, or encourage the wonderful Radio Sussex shows to investigate how this significant debt has been created, leaving the council in such a precarious position. It is crucial to understand exactly which services are responsible for contributing to this financial burden. Transparency in this matter is essential for public awareness and trust, particularly as these circumstances directly impact the pro...

14 Oct 2024, 00:00 Concerns About Children's Care, Funding, and Legal Breaches

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com>

Dear Keith Glazier, On Radio Sussex at 7:04 AM, it was announced that Sussex County Council is facing foreclosure while attempting to recover £70 million over the next two years. This urgent recovery effort comes in the context of an alarming £55 million debt that the council is already grappling with. Catherine Hyde's mother, a regular attendee at the Phoenix Centre for elderly individuals, relies on the dementia services offered in Lewes, which provide her with a vital lifeline. The centre enables her to socialize with others and participate in a variety of activities that would otherwise be unavailable to her. However, concerns are mounting that these essential services may soon face sev...

14 Oct 2024, 00:00 Concerns About Children's Care, Funding, and Legal Breaches

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Keith Glazier

Dear Keith Glazier, I am writing to express my concerns regarding children's care in East Sussex, which is reportedly in debt due to the mismanagement of the £55 million budget. It is alarming to hear from various sources, including the press, that the children's care being provided is not fit for purpose, raising serious questions about the effectiveness of this spending. Lindon Court, the Phoenix Centre, and Crowborough Centre are crucial services that support vulnerable people in East Sussex, providing essential care and support to adults in need. However, Keith Glazier has stated that he needs to save £75 million, putting these adult day centres at risk of closure or reduced services. T...

Dear Phyllis, Thank you for acknowledging my emails. While I appreciate that the matters are being reviewed, I must stress the extreme urgency of the situation. My daughter is currently 17 and will turn 18 at the end of the month. The delays we have experienced have now brought this matter to a critical juncture. Additionally, there is an active missing persons report for her in Ireland, and each day without action further jeopardizes her wellbeing. It is imperative that you understand the ongoing illegality of this situation, which has been unresolved for over thirteen years. I have repeatedly sought resolution, but the continued foot-dragging has left me with no choice but to escalate my...

18 Oct 2024, 00:00 Concerns Regarding Modern Slavery and Child Trafficking

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: hello@unseenuk.org

Dear Modern Slavery Hotline I am contacting you regarding my suspicions of modern slavery in East Sussex, particularly concerning my daughter, who is being placed in servitude by a criminal organization. I submitted a Freedom of Information request and a GDPR inquiry, and I attempted to reach the helpline at 9:45 AM on 18th October 2024. Unfortunately, the line was extremely busy and could not take my call. I have also reached out to East Sussex County Council multiple times through several legal emails, but despite the serious legal implications presented to them, they have failed to respond adequately. I have referenced the Writ of Habeas Corpus and Writ of Attachment in my communications...

18 Oct 2024, 00:00 Concerns Regarding Emily's Safety and Legal Actions

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Mary E McCloskey <mccloskey.mary.e@gmail.com>

Dear Mary E. McClosky, Thank you for your recent communication. It's concerning that both Tusla and the Irish Times are of one mind, stating that "the care provided is not fit for purpose." Unfortunately, I was unable to view the post referenced, as the account owner has restricted access. This is a frustration, but I anticipated this possibility, given the gravity of Emily's situation. I have been deeply aware of the potential danger Emily faces in Northern Ireland, including the unthinkable risk of her being murdered. It is alarming that these legal services have not acknowledged or addressed this risk adequately. As a result, I have been compelled to issue both a Writ of Habeas Corpus an...

To the Honorable Chief Justices, I, Martin Newbold, hereby request the court's urgent attention regarding my daughter, Emily. I am filing this application for a writ of habeas corpus and a writ of attachment, as this matter presents an emergency requiring immediate intervention. Basis for the Application: 1. Risk of Harm and Concealment: I believe that the individual currently possessing my daughter may harm, damage, or hide her. This individual is unlikely to comply with the writ of habeas corpus due to the undue influence of improper use of public funds. 2. Emergency Safeguarding Needs: My daughter has expressed that she is at risk. The person currently with her is unwilling to bring her...

25 Oct 2024, 00:00 Request for Information on Detention Details of Emily Newbold Smith

Dear MOJ, I am writing to formally request specific details regarding the detention of my daughter, Emily Newbold Smith, under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and applicable legal provisions under the Data Protection Act 2018. This request follows information indicating she is being held under the jurisdiction of prison regulations, yet there has been no disclosure of critical details regarding her confinement. I request the following information: 1. The name and location of the prison facility where my daughter, Emily Newbold Smith, is currently held. 2. Her assigned prisoner identification number to facilitate any official inquiries regarding her status and to ensure her rights are ma...

Dear Tracy Hunter I am following up on my response dated October 18, 2024, reference SA010831011GB delivered on 21-10- 2024 regarding my request for information related to my daughter's case, currently age 17. I would appreciate it if you could clarify whether there are any criminal proceedings currently affecting myself or my daughter, as this has not been clearly addressed in prior communications. Understanding the status of any criminal matters is essential for me to respond appropriately and ensure compliance with any legal requirements. I understand there are restrictions on some information under the GDPR; however, confirmation of any active criminal element and guidance on next steps...

Dear Mr. Ruston, Thank you for clarifying that my daughter is in prison. I would like you to explain the following: Why are you bridging across the rules from her being a child to her becoming an adult next week? There is no mention of human rights, the Human Rights Act, or attention to the writ of Habeas Corpus, which I have served. I understand that a person known as "Babies Killer," Lucy Letby, is not being prevented from contacting or seeing her parents. Is this claim consistent with the videos of complaint and the single LAC meeting (in annex), where it was stated that my daughter went out shopping, studied hotel management, and showed an interest in singing? Dear Mr Newbold, Thank you for your recent correspondence. In September 2024, the Cabinet considered an exceptional report that set out the acute and growing financial challenge that the Council faces: RPPR Update Report.pdf. The report reflected that a combination of national cost pressures and increasing demand for local services, particular with Children's and Adult Social Care, is putting the sustainability of the essential services we provide to all our residents at risk. In presenting a budget deficit of £55.3m in 2025/26 rising to £83.6m by 2027/28, the Cabinet agreed the next steps to be taken in response to the deteriorating situation. This included starting public consultation on...

Dear Keith Glazier, Thank you for your recent correspondence. I am reaching out with serious concerns regarding the ongoing situation surrounding my missing daughter. I have recently contacted UTV due to escalating issues, as it has come to my attention that neither my daughter nor I have any medical history recorded with the Patient Client Council. This raises alarming questions, potentially drawing troubling parallels with cases like Madeleine McCann's disappearance. I believe this requires immediate public scrutiny to highlight the lack of accessible medical and location records for my daughter. In light of this, I would suggest an opportunity to preemptively engage with the press by int...

Thank you for your response dated November 4, 2024, regarding my subject access request, reference number 19567481, which you have classified as complex. I must clarify that I have already summarized the essential details of this case over a three-day period for the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) in Strasbourg, which indicates that the information requested is not as complex as has been suggested. I am formally asserting that the ongoing use of an unenforceable family court order in this case is deeply concerning. The primary basis for my claim is that my daughter, Emily, is unaccounted for and in danger. This raises critical questions about the duty of care and statutory obligations...

However, I pointed out that the police are currently unable to fully fund or staff efforts to search for missing persons, and in some cases, they may even be unable to register new missing persons cases. This raised a critical question: if the police can no longer prioritize or resource missing persons cases effectively, doesn't this make the role of the Missing Persons organization itself ineffective or defunct? I must clarify that I have already summarized the essential details of this case over a three-day period for the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) in Strasbourg, which indicates that the information requested is not as complex as has been suggested. I am formally asserting that the ongoing use of an unenforceable family court order in this case is deeply concerning. Dear Customer Services and Information Governance Team, I am writing to bring attention to concerning allegations about unethical practices in family court proceedings, particularly the "sexing up" of social work reports and the use of what is now being referred to as "Toxic Court Procedures." These practices reportedly involve manipulating reports to create false narratives, undermining the fair treatment of families within the judicial system. Significant evidence has surfaced regarding former senior social services official Matt Dunkley, who was under investigation by the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission (IBAC) in Victoria, Australia. Dear Customer Services and Information Governance Team, Today, I called the Missing Persons helpline at 0800 234 6034 and spoke with an agent to seek assistance. During the conversation, I was informed that Missing Persons was established to assist the police in locating individuals who have gone missing. However, I pointed out that the police are currently unable to fully fund or staff efforts to search for missing persons, and in some cases, they may even be unable to register new missing persons cases. This raised a critical question: if the police can no longer prioritize or resource missing persons cases effectively, doesn't this make the role of the Missing Persons organization itself...

Dear Elon Musk /X Support Team, European Parliament, Can you provide me with your dictionary's meaning of spam? I await to be advised from you as my communication does not fulfill the criteria as you have set it out. There you seem to have created an empathy that is likely to affect all other Twitter (X) users. Much of the systemic erosion of accountability and transparency in government and social services seems to have its roots in 1998, when Tony Blair visited the United States and formulated a strategic plan with then-President Bill Clinton. This collaboration laid the groundwork for significant policy shifts, including the adoption of the "Third Way" approach to governance. These polic...

Dear HL Communications Team, I am submitting a formal Data Protection request regarding the security footage and any associated records for the Children and Families Truth Commission Report Launch held in the House November 15, 2024. Your previous determination that this was an external event seems questionable, as you informed me via telephone today that external rooms within the House of Lords do not have security fi present significant security risk for members meeting in such spaces. Additionally, Baroness Tanni Grey-Thompson was reportedly involved as chair. While there appears to be no official rec Lords meeting chaired by her on this date, on Hansard, your response implies the meetin...

I also understand there is no intelligence in the Dublin office which has been relocated and vacated. The governance issues Grok2 highlight at X Corp (formerly Twitter) seem rooted in a mix of communication breakdowns, technical inadequacies, and operational inefficiencies compromising accounts: 1. Unanswered Emails and Online Forms • This reflects a significant customer service failure, possibly due to understaffing, system prioritization errors, or misaligned focus areas. 2024-12-05 Dear IBAC, I am writing regarding Operation Dunham, which was conducted in Victoria, Australia, in connection with the Ultranet scandal. It is my understanding that the Geelong Advertiser reported on a taped telephone recording involving Matt Dunkley and Mr. John Allman, where Mr. Allman admitted to destroying financial documents after IBAC investigators visited his home. It is concerning that despite evidence presented during this investigation, including phone-tapped conversations dated October 2014, there appears to have been a lack of accountability for the conduct of certain officers involved. Reports suggest that Mr. Dunkley was removed from the Education Department's Integ...

Dear Ikenna, I am writing to follow up on my previous communications from 5th and 2nd November 2024, as I have not yet received a response. It is during this time that immediate, intensive action is most effective in ensuring the safety of the individual and identifying the circumstances surrounding their disappearance. Given that my daughter has been missing for an extended period, I am deeply concerned that no proper investigation has been initiated, including the consideration of the potential for murder. Re: your complaint against Police

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Okorie, Ikenna (OPONI) <ikenna.okorie@policeombudsman.org>

Dear Ikenna, I am writing to highlight "serious concerns" regarding the care provided to my daughter and thousands of other children, which has been repeatedly found unfit for purpose. This is supported by The Irish Times article I previously shared, which underscores the systemic failures in child care provision. Key Issues: 1. DNA Sample Mismanagement: Serious concerns persist regarding Section 10 offenses related to the mishandling of my daughter's DNA samples. To date, this matter remains unresolved and demands a satisfactory conclusion for all parties involved. 2. Unlawful Relocation in Breach of Legal Limits: My daughter, along with thousands of other children, was relocated approxima...

Inquiry Regarding Operation Dunham and the Ultranet Scandal

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Okorie, Ikenna (OPONI) <ikenna.okorie@policeombudsman.org>

Dear Ikenna I write to escalate my concerns regarding the ongoing issues relating to Operation Dunham, the Ultranet Scandal, and serious breaches of legal and ethical obligations. including reports Social workers 'sex up abuse claims to snatch children for adoption' | UK | News | Express.co.uk As part of my case, I submitted DNA evidence to Northern Ireland (SA010831060GB) in connection with a Subject Access Request (Ref: 19567481). However, I have yet to receive any proof that my daughter was ever present in Northern Ireland or any details about the handling of her data. This matter has also been included in the LGO Case 24012899 and HCR Strasbourg Cases 5043, 4939, 4943, 4881, 4920, 4873,...

Dear Ikenna, I am confused. Have you just admitted that the NI OPC and the police are unable to conduct an investigation using their own services? Firstly, I would like to clarify that any contact with social services in Northern Ireland requires my explicit permission, as they are involved in a matter that raises serious concerns. Additionally, any data transfer that breaches data protection regulations (DPR) is unacceptable and must be avoided. Please ensure that all actions comply with the relevant legal frameworks, especially regarding data protection. I look forward to your clarification. Sincerely, Kind Regards Mr. Martin Newbold Visit my author website p: 01424 430373 | m:07542641417|...

Dear Ms. Kapourelakos, I am writing in reference to my previous correspondence addressed to Commissioner Elliott on December 23, 2024 (Reference RL265917313GB). In this matter, I have provided significant intelligence regarding Operation Dunham that warrants corroboration as part of the investigation's debrief. Specifically, this pertains to the South West Regional Area Director, Matthew Dunkley, and his role in the Ultramet project, which resulted in the loss of $180 million. As detailed in my letter to the Commissioner, I have identified parallels between Mr. Dunkley's actions during his time in Victoria and his conduct in England, where he was responsible for children's welfare in East...

Dear Customer Services and Information Governance Team, Thank you for your response dated 20th December 2024 acknowledging my correspondence. I must highlight that East Sussex County Council has failed to adhere to its obligations under current legislation, particularly concerning the handling of my children's case and the associated genetic and genealogical report. These failures include placing siblings with the wrong families 14 years ago—neither of which is from Northern Ireland. This serious error raises questions about the accuracy, integrity, and accountability of the processes involved. Even when this entered the press. When Anita Cundall was tasked with investigating these matters,...

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Corporate Complaints <Corporate.Complaints@eastsussex.gov.uk>

Dear Mr. Rupert Clubb, I am writing in response to my unanswered communication to your statement: "Please note that the Council is liable for the acts and omissions of its staff, so the correct Defendant is East Sussex County Council, not Anita Cundall personally." Your assertion raises serious concerns. Are you implying that you, in your official capacity, acknowledge a lack of oversight or control over the actions of your personnel? If any member of your team engages in criminal conduct, they are individually liable for prosecution under the law, irrespective of the Council's broader liability. Furthermore, this approach raises questions about whether you are acting in accordance with you...

Dear Mr. Clubb, and Alison Byrne, I am writing to follow up on my previous communication, which remains unanswered. Your recent statements appear inconsistent with corporate or local authority policy, raising significant concerns. As I have clearly stated to your employee-whose conduct was both disgraceful and defamatory-neither Lauren nor Emily are Mr. Gerard Keenan's biological daughters. Lauren is the biological daughter of Mr. Daniel Cunningham, and Emily is my biological daughter. This critical fact highlights the flawed assumptions that underpin the actions taken by the local authority, along with the scandalous behaviour of individuals such as Dunkley and Stirling. Furthermore, Dunkl...

Dear Patients Know Best Team, I am writing to express my concerns regarding the accuracy of my latest HbA1c results recorded on December 27th. I have previously informed you that these results do not align with my own tests, which have consistently demonstrated readings within the expected range. I have also noticed that the results from the hospital services, which appeared more accurate up to Christmas last year, seem to have been removed from my account. 8 Jan 2025, 00:00 Urgent Complaint and Request for Action Regarding Missing Daughter

Dear SPOA, I am writing to formally address a series of serious concerns regarding the emergency duty services you have referred me to, specifically the contact numbers 01273 335905 and 01273 335906. I would like to point out that these numbers are neither monitored nor answered, and I have already submitted a formal complaint to your department. Should this issue not be addressed, I will be escalating the matter to the Local Government Ombudsman. My daughter is currently missing and is not where she is supposed to be, which is a direct result of your actions or inactions. My partner, Emily, the mother of my daughter, tragically passed away due to the neglect of East Sussex Social Services....

Dear Honorable Court, I respectfully submit this letter to bring forward additional concerns regarding the conduct of Mr. Elon Musk and X Corp. (formerly Twitter). I contend that Elon Musk's public statements regarding free speech on the platform constituted an assurance of First Amendment protections for its users. Furthermore, given his sworn oath of allegiance to the U.S. government and his involvement with government agencies, I argue that this further strengthens the obligation to uphold constitutional principles on the platform. Additionally, I assert that Mr. Musk was aware of the "Magic Blue Monkey" cross-platform issue when my account was suspended earlier in 2024. This issue invol...

Refusal to Sign Documentation Pending Location of Emily and Resolution of Outstanding Legal and Financial Issues

Email | From: Martin Newbold | To: Alistair Hunt; Claire Hainsworth; Samuel Andrews

I am writing in response to your recent communication, in which I am being asked to sign documentation concerning the Child Trust Fund (CTF) of my missing daughter, Emily. I must make it absolutely clear that I cannot sign any such documentation until Emily has been located and identified safely. This position is grounded in both legal and ethical obligations arising from multiple unresolved matters, including: 1. Missing Child – Legal and Evidentiary Obligations Unmet Emily has been missing for over 14 years. Despite extensive efforts to engage with the authorities responsible for her welfare, including Social Services and relevant courts, her whereabouts remain unknown. In the absence of...

14 May 2025, 00:00	Request for Investigation: Tracking Anomalies and Delivery Verification for DS340986620GB & DS340986029GB Email From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> To: reportascam@royalmail.com Dear Royal Mail Investigations Team, I am writing to formally report and request clarification regarding two Special Delivery parcels-tracking codes DS340986620GB and DS340986029GB-both of which were addressed to 10 Downing Street, London. On 13 May 2025 at 3:33 PM, tracking records confirm that parcel DS340986620GB left Hastings. However, by 4:58 AM on 14 May 2025, it was marked as "Collected" in London. This less-than-14-hour turnaround raises concern—not due to efficiency, but due to inconsistency and confusion over the scan data and status updates. When I contacted Royal Mail Customer Services at 10:47:55 PM on 14 May, I was informed after a lengthy call (approximately 53 minutes) via 0... ../index.php?id=1079

Dear Mr Newbold Claim No: 640MC413 (the "Claim") Parties: Martin Newbold v Nationwide Building Society ("Nationwide") We refer to your e-mail below. As per Nationwide's Directions Questionnaire, which has been provided to you on more than one occasion and is attached again for each of reference, Nationwide does not seek to transfer this claim to Nottingham. Section F of Nationwide's Directions Questionnaire clearly states that Nationwide has no preference as to Court venue. For the avoidance of doubt, Nationwide's N244 Application Notice is an application to strike out the claim and/or for summary judgment on the claim so as to avoid the parties incurring disproportionate time and costs dea...

Dear Minister, I previously wrote to you on 19th December 2019, and again this morning, 14th September 2025. I do not recall receiving a reply to my earlier correspondence. Since that time, matters have escalated significantly. As I indicated in my email this morning, I believe that the words of a social worker Christine Elizabeth Stirling -"Martin, you will never work again"--were not merely an insult, but a statement of intent to deliberately target me. The targeting has been carried out by confusing my identity with another individual named Martin Newbold, who is not me. I am Martin Peter Newbold, an author. This misidentification has been compounded by Google, where my repeated complain...

Dear Mr. Stansfeld, I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to you not only as a father searching for my missing daughter, Emily, but also as someone who, in the course of that search, has come across evidence of what appears to be serious criminality involving financial institutions, political figures, and those connected to Jeffrey Epstein. Search Results for Courts: All > Query: Mandelson flights - 10 Results - CourtListener.com It is a striking contrast: ordinary parents are dragged through secret courts, stripped of their children, and silenced by gagging orders, yet senior figures like Lord Mandelson are never stripped of their titles, never truly held to account. Email | From: Martin Newbold

ROYAL COMMUNICATIONS STRICTLY EMBARGOED 1900HRS FRIDAY 17TH OCTOBER Friday, 17 October 2025 A STATEMENT BY PRINCE ANDREW In discussion with The King, and my immediate and wider family, we have concluded the continued accusations about me distract from the work of His Majesty and the Royal Family. I have decided, as I always have, to put my duty to my family and country first. I stand by my decision five years ago to stand back from public life. With His Majesty's agreement, we feel I must now go a step further. I will therefore no longer use my title or the honours which have been conferred upon me. Dear Government Equalities Office, I am writing to request urgent intervention and clarification regarding ongoing equality and safeguarding failures linked to trafficking cases A9Q5LNHR and 2J7B81QU, which continue to expand in scope and seriousness. These matters intersect with broader national concerns over systemic failures to protect women and children, including the disappearance of large numbers of children from public systems and their subsequent ineligibility to receive legally mandated government assets such as Child Trust Fund (CTF) payments. Context The UK Government's own data - including the National Audit Office (NAO) report (March 2023) and HMRC figures - confirms that over...

Document Type: Letter from Counter Terrorism Policing, Metropolitan Police. The letter serves as a reminder of confidentiality and privacy obligations for individuals who carried out Royalty Protection for the Metropolitan Police Service. It emphasizes the unique nature of this role, requiring high standards of public service, integrity, confidentiality, and respect for those protected. The obligations continue even after an officer has left the service, and breaching them can undermine trust. The letter also states that these obligations do not extend to matters of obvious public interest where criminality or issues relating to national security are evident, in which case reporting directl...

I am aware of the image on Wikimedia Commons, and I have granted the right to the image to wikipedia commons on my behalf through a writer on Wikipedia. This I believe has added to the confusion. Dear Rayna, Thank you for checking and for your clear explanation. Yes, the Commons image you linked is me. If there's anything I should add to the file description (e.g., "author headshot of Martin Newbold (UK author of The Stealing of Emily and The Badgers of Bunger Hill)") to help avoid future confusion, I'm happy to do that. I understand your point that there is currently no Wikipedia article or Wikidata item for me. My concern is that I believe there have previously been attempts to create or reference content about me which were later archived/removed, and that this may still be contributing to the muddle on the search side. Dear Shaemous Flocks, Thank you for your reply. To clarify, this is not a legal demand. It was also sent to your legal team at legal@wikimedia.org. I am raising an author identity and disambiguation concern that appears to be affecting how my name and images are represented via Wikimedia-linked records and how those signals may be reflected in Google search results. Do I understand from your dismissal of this disambiguation issue that Wikipedia supports Google's continued use of misattributed identity or imagery in cases like mine? I ask because I am aware this appears to be happening to other authors as well. Further, is this consistent with how Wikipedia now approaches disambiguation and...

Dear Google support, I believe I have been instructed by Google Ads that if I take a subscription advertising with Google Adverts this will not correct the data you hold on your site which you hold incorrectly. I asked you to write to Wikipedia to ask them to resolve this which your advertisement team said you would not facilitate. As Google has received my detailed DSA notice and has not issued a "decision" (a clear, reasoned statement of removal or refusal, as required by Article 15), I believe you are ignoring mandatory DSA compliance duties. This non-action is a systemic failure to comply with the DSA, and it significantly strengthens my hand in the next steps. 1. Final Regulatory Actio...

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: East Sussex County Council <inforequests-icw@eastsussex.gov.uk>

Dear Mrs Wallace I contacted the ICO helpline and explained that ESCC disclosed call metadata for two calls but stated "not held" for recordings, transcripts, staff notes, CRM entries, and follow-up, despite the call handler stating during the call that they were "making a note." I raised concern that ESCC may be excluding supplier-hosted CRM/casework systems (iCasework/Civica) from SAR searches or failing to explain deletion/retention. The helpline advised I raise this with the council for clarification and, if unresolved, submit a complaint for case officer review. I attach the call transcript. For your Information. 21 Jan 2026, 00:00 URGENT: Clinical Safety Risk and Denial of Specialist Medication - MArtin Newbold

For the Attention of the Sussex ICB Complaints and Patient Safety Team, I am writing to formally report an urgent clinical safety issue regarding The Hill Surgery, Hastings. I was a patient under the care of St Thomas' Hospital for a chronic inflammatory condition (colitis). I have been informed by The Hill Surgery today that they will not issue an emergency prescription for my Pentasa (Mesalazine), stating that a two-day gap in treatment is "not an emergency." This advice is clinically incorrect and dangerous. My specialist protocols require continuous treatment to prevent a relapse/flare-up. Dear Elie, Yesterday 22 January 2026. I was informed by my contact in the conquest Hospital that Anthony Dann, Naomi Komo Linda Parker Milan Radia surgery had contacted a specialist at cost in the in the hospital about me without me knowing or telephoning me or even ,mentioning this in regard to my medication when Dr Milan stated that it was potentially risky for me to have Pentassa prescribed to me for my chronic condition without seeing me! Is that not risky behavior in triage cutting drugs which a patient has had been afforded for 50 years? Your team then, according to these records, contacted a specialist at hospital cost, without seeing me and set about a plan without me or without tel...

Dear Mr Newbold, I write further to your email below, received by my colleagues in the Information Governance Team late yesterday afternoon, and shared with me this morning. I hope you are well. I have checked our Subject Access Request (SAR) database however, we have no record of receiving a SAR from you requesting copies of health records held and controlled by our Trust. Furthermore, a review of our SAR mailbox can find no SAR waiting to be logged for you. If you have submitted a SAR to our Trust, please can you provide us with a copy of the SAR submitted and the required ID so that my team can be of assistance to you. Email | From: INFOGOV (EAST SUSSEX HEALTHCARE NHS TRUST) <esh-tr.infogov@nhs.net> | To: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com>

Dear Elena, I am writing to formally request confirmation of receipt regarding my Subject Access Request (SAR) / Data Protection Act (DPA) request submitted on 21 January 2026. As previously stated, I now require all records, correspondence, and clinical notes concerning my chronic condition, Ulcerative Colitis, specifically those pertaining to the decision to cease my prescribed medication. So that these may be added to the case file. Please be advised that this information is required as a precursor to potential legal action. Under the UK GDPR / Data Protection Act 2018, you are required to respond to this request without undue delay and at the latest within one month. Given the nature of...

For the purposes of clarity and to be concise in communications, I am providing one response to you as the majority of your emails are not matters for the SAR Team or indeed for our Trust (East Sussex Healthcare NHS Trust - ESHT). Please note the following: 1. If you wish to seek copies of healthcare records in relation to care and treatment provided to you by ESHT, then a SAR is requested. I note from the extensive email trails that your first SAR was sent to "Elena", copied to our Information Governance (IG) Team; it is unclear who "Elena" is and where she is based, and our IG Team do not process...

Dear Mr Newbold, Thank you for your recent emails. The Ombudsman has not completed a safeguarding or referral assessment regarding your case. As part of our investigations we may consider whether an organisation has carried out safeguarding assessments or referrals. Dear YouTube Support Team, I am writing in response to the recent action taken on my site/channel. I strongly disagree with the decision and believe there may have been a misunderstanding about the nature and purpose of my content. My intention has been to provide legitimate self-help and informational material for the public. I do not believe the content violated your policies, and I would appreciate a specific explanation of which guidelines you believe were breached so I can properly understand and address the issue. I also want to note that being characterized as dishonest in the prior communication felt unfair and concerning. I take compliance seriously and have acted in good faith. Pl...

Rain The Google Support Team I tried to open a complaint, but you don't have a UK complaint office. Your GDPR service seems not accessible. I caution you that under additions to the gdpr When data is leaving the UK, and morally / practically, parents expect UK data to be hosted and controlled in the UK. Legally, it's "allowed" because the UK has deemed Finland (EEA) adequate - it's a legal loophole, not a physical guarantee 1. Adequacy decisions • The UK can decide that a country (or the EEA as a whole) has data protection laws "adequate" to meet UK standards. • If a country is deemed adequate, companies can transfer personal data there without needing extra safeguards like standard contrac...

Subject Line: Make it stand out. Use: URGENT: Missing Daughter Emily - Royal Correspondence Received

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: newsdesk@independent.co.uk, letters@independent.co.uk

2025-02-24 Dear Editor, I am writing to you today regarding the ongoing and deeply distressing case of my daughter, Emily, who remains missing. In my efforts to bring attention to her disappearance, I recently reached out to the Royal Household. I have now received a formal response from His Majesty The King's office regarding Emily's case. I believe the involvement of the Royal Offices underscores the gravity of this situation and the urgent need for renewed public awareness. I have enclosed the following documents for your review: A copy of my original letter to the Royal Offices. The formal response received from His Majesty The King's office. I am seeking your help to share Emily's stor...

OFFICIAL-FOR PUBLIC RELEASE Reference: FOI2026/00558 Dear Mr Newbold, Thank you for your information request which we received on 16th February 2026. In your request you asked for: Dear Sir / Madam I am writing to request clarification regarding where the income of Gary Paul Daniels has been recorded or filed over the past 12 years. Can you please inform me of any current investigations. Based on available information, the income appears to relate to software installations charged at £29 per month per install. If the number of installations/councils is approximately 390,000, the indicative calculation over 12 years would be: • £29 × 390,000 = £11,310,000 per month • £11,310,000 × 12 = £135,...

Dear Adult Care Complaints, I am writing to you about the acts of criminal silence with regard to my missing daughter, now thought to be connected with Operation Ironville and definitely with Operations Dunham and IBA. At the time of these matters, Matt Dunkley CBE was working within Children’s Services, including as Children’s Director in East Sussex. He was subsequently arrested in Victoria, Australia on charges of embezzlement. It is important to realise that, while working in Children’s Services in East Sussex, he was recorded in Bunnies Bar by IBAC and then seemingly let go with some outside influence, possibly from Blair, Mandelson or Andrew. Either way, he was helped out of this situ...

Dear Social Work England, As you clearly stated in the recording we both share from 19 March 2026, "No, we're not," in the context of locating children. I believe that statement is hostile to children and contrary to your mandate. Would you care to explain? Or am I to understand from that recorded statement that there are alleged criminal motives behind your position? I am relying on your recorded words, not making an allegation. Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: Pcc@thamesvalley.police.uk, enquiries@thamesvalley.police.uk

Dear Thames Valley Police, Mathew Barber I am contacting you in regard to Operation Ironside. I have information which I believe is relevant and which I ask you to properly record, review, and acknowledge. This concerns safeguarding issues and missing children. Please confirm receipt and advise where full supporting material should be sent. My concerns relate to my daughter, who I have been informed by the NHS cannot be located on her records, and to wider matters which I believe require police attention. I regard this as a serious safeguarding issue. I have previously raised related concerns with Social Work England, including complaint references CON 5685 and 6235, but those matters were...

CaseWork ICO I have now made ten complaints of this nature. No substantive action has followed. This is no longer capable of being dismissed as an isolated delay or administrative oversight. It is a repeated pattern of non-engagement. The ICO's own correspondence states that where appropriate steps are not taken, or progress/outcome information is not provided within three months, Tribunal recourse may arise. I therefore rely not only on the underlying complaint material, but also on the repeated failure to engage with it.. Please refer this latest to the Tribunal Service who will do something you are not prepared to do. Warm regards, Martin Newbold

Dear ICOCasework Complaint Companies House records show a pattern of multiple eGOV-branded companies, including one dissolved by voluntary strike-off, one currently showing overdue accounts and an active strike-off proposal, and another using two variants of the same officer name within the company record. EGOV SYSTEMS LIMITED (04915551) was struck off. Its Companies House filing history shows: 20 Dec 2012 — application to strike the company off the register, 08 Jan 2013 — first Gazette notice for voluntary strike-off, 23 Apr 2013 — final Gazette dissolved via voluntary strike-off. Dear Carly Driver I have now contacted you on more than three occasions regarding the welfare of my daughter, Emily Newbold-Smith, and have submitted approximately 50 pages of evidence to the relevant local authority. Given the seriousness of this matter, I would appreciate clear and direct clarification. Under Sarah's Law, I ask you to confirm the following: Are you stating that my daughter is not registered on the NHS system nationwide? If so, when did this occur? Is there a death certificate recorded for Emily Newbold-Smith? If so, please provide details, including the signing authority and witness. What is the stated cause of death for both my daughter and her mother? Additionally, I re...

Subject: Missing Person Case – Supporting Documents Dear BBC South East Today, Please accept the documents previously sent to East Sussex County Council regarding my daughter, who has been missing for 19 years. I have recently been informed by the NHS in Conquest that my daughter has no records attached to the NHS number that was issued to her at birth. This has raised serious concerns, and I am seeking further clarity and attention to this matter. Thank you for your time and consideration. Warm regards, Martin Newbold 🌐

I am seeking your urgent help regarding very serious concerns about my daughter, Emily, and the way related matters appear to have been handled by public authorities and the family court. I remain deeply concerned that proper due process may not have been followed and that significant questions have been left unanswered. In particular, I have seen emails relating to my daughter that appear to suggest irregularities in the records connected to her identity and...

Dear Martin, Thank you for your email. If you have a concern about a social worker, we advise that this needs to be dealt with through their employer first at a local level. This would usually be by raising a complaint with the social worker's manager, or your local authority. All local authorities will have an individual complaints procedure to follow. If you are not sure of your local authority's complaints procedure, I would advise you contact the generic number for your local council and ask to be put through to the complaints team. If you have been through your local authority complaints procedure, but you still have concerns about a social worker not meeting our professional standards...

I must express my concern that despite raising this matter with my local authority, I have received little to no meaningful response, and my complaint has not been properly addressed or investigated. Given the seriousness of the issues concerning my daughters, Emily and her sister, I now consider this matter unresolved at a local level. In light of this, I intend to escalate my concerns to Social Work England through the formal "Raise a Concern" process. Before doing so, I am providing a final opportunity for this matter to be addressed appropriately. Please confirm within 10 days: Whether my complaint has been formally logged and investiga...

Prime Minister, I am asking No.10 to intervene in a matter that raises grave concerns about State removal of children, local-authority misconduct, and the use of Child Abduction Warning Notices. In 2011, the Sunday Express reported Ted Jeory's whistleblower account that social workers were being pressured to sex-up reports to secure care and adoption outcomes. In that same year, Emily was forcibly removed from court-appointed contact with her father. If that removal was based on distorted reports, unlawful instruction, or misuse of child-protection powers, then this was not protection — it was State abduction under colour of authority. I require disclosure of who authorised Emily's removal,...

ADDENDUM TO HMCTS COMPLAINT This is an addendum to my submitted HMCTS complaint. For the avoidance of doubt, my complaint is not a general complaint about delay, poor administration, or dissatisfaction with an outcome. My complaint is that my daughter Emily, born in 2006, has been deprived of contact with her father and family through what I have described in the complaint form as State-sponsored abduction under the guise of protection. The complaint already submitted states that the court is using Child Abduction Warning Notices as a tactical weapon to deprive my daughter of her family. It also describes this as administrative kidnapping. HMCTS must therefore answer the actual complaint ma...

Dear Anne Longford, I am writing to ask for your assistance regarding a serious access-to-justice concern. In the correspondence I hold, David Greenwood is listed as Director and Solicitor, and as Head of the Abuse Compensation Team. However, I have been told that legal aid and no-win-no-fee funding would not be available, and that payment would be needed at the outset. The figure discussed is around £50,000. My concern is this: if a matter involving alleged abuse, child removal, missing-child records, public authority failures, and long-term obstruction cannot be taken forward by an Abuse Compensation Team without a victim or parent first finding £50,000, then what realistic route is avail...

I do not accept the suggestion that she is simply "within the care system," as I have already provided information indicating serious concerns about her whereabouts and whether the relevant authorities can locate her. If Emily is in the care system, please explain why social workers in Northern Ireland have been unable to locate her. Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: customerrelations@charitycommission.gov.uk, Locate International Investigations <investigations@locate.international>

To: customerrelations@charitycommission.gov.uk Dear Charity Commission, I am raising a formal concern regarding Locate International CIO, charity number 1197991. The Charity Commission register lists a public telephone number for this charity: 07410899091. It also lists the email address info@locate.international. My concern is that a public-facing charity dealing with sensitive missing-persons, vulnerable-persons, family, safeguarding, and casework-related matters must have a real and functioning route for public contact, complaints, accountability, and escalation. If the telephone number listed on the public Charity Commission register is unmanned, ineffective, not answered, or does not p...

Dear Kay, Thank you for your email. For the avoidance of doubt, my email was not sent to you in error. I am not asking Social Work England to act as the local authority complaints department. I am raising concerns about the conduct, honesty, accuracy, safeguarding judgment, professional standards, and fitness to practise of social workers involved in my daughter's case. Referring me back to the same local authority that I say has failed to respond in any reasonable or accountable way is not an adequate answer. My concern is precisely that the local authority process is ineffective, conflicted, and incapable of dealing independently with the conduct of its own staff. To clarify, this is not...

Dear Inquiry Team, Thank you for your response. I must respectfully correct the framing of my referral. My concern is not simply a "missing persons" issue or a "mishandled trust fund" issue. The matter I have raised concerns a wider safeguarding pattern involving a child removed from family contact, failures by public bodies to account for what happened, suspected exploitation routes, and institutional handling which appears to have obstructed proper scrutiny. Those issues are directly relevant to the themes of grooming, exploitation, institutional failure, and the handling of children by local authorities, police, and associated agencies. Re Intervention Required This is a court-procedure issue. A court case must consist of adequate discovery/disclosure. If obvious evidential lines are not being pursued — including “El Money,” payment routes, PayPal/crypto, hotel records, employment/income, Telegram instructions, company/accountant material and motive — then the case may be proceeding on an incomplete evidential record. That raises a procedural fairness issue and may breach the disclosure/discovery obligations you identified, including CPR Part 31 / Practice Direction 57AD principles of adequate disclosure, and the criminal disclosure/fair-trial framework in an arson prosecution. Dear Mr Newbold, Firstly, I would like to stress that everyone at Locate International is a volunteer. As a result, there can occasionally be delays in reviewing and responding to enquiries. Dear Locate International, Your reply appears to rely on the absence of a formal police missing-person record. That is not the same as establishing that Emily is not missing. Before this matter is closed, please provide a clear administrative account of all ICO matters held in my name. Why would the ICO offer a steer toward a legal system which, in my experience, is already affected by procedural discrepancies, non-compliance, and failures of proper process? That is not a rhetorical issue. Your request (#6605704) is being reviewed by the GOV.UK User Support team. Dear Sir/Madam I have also written to the Chair for the Westminster Hall debate on 28 April 2026 concerning International Parental Child Abduction. Quite frankly, I am disgusted by the lack of action I am observing. The issues raised in that debate go directly to the protection of children, the conduct of public authorities, and the failures of systems that are supposed to provide remedies when children are removed, concealed, or placed beyond proper scrutiny. I have also written to the Department for Education seeking an explanation for what I regard as scandalous acts surrounding the education system in the United...

Subject: Request for Parliamentary signposting: timeline concerning missing daughter, child-services records, and obstruction when contacting MPs

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: hcenquiries@parliament.uk

Subject: Request for Parliamentary signposting: timeline concerning missing daughter, child-services records, and obstruction when contacting MPs Dear House of Commons Enquiry Service, I am writing to ask for guidance on the correct Parliamentary route for raising a serious public-interest matter concerning my missing daughter, Emily, social-services records, family-court safeguards, and my recent inability to contact MPs by email because Google/Gmail blocked further transmission. I understand that the House of Commons Enquiry Service can provide information about the work of the House of Commons, committees, MPs, debates and parliamentary procedure, but cannot pass messages to MPs or provi...

Dear Member of Parliament, I am forwarding this email to you physically sent via https://www.stealingofamily.world/mailout/mail_mps.php
Where is Emily Newbold I am writing to receive the information that all roads in this country have problems and political issues end with the ineptness of our government. I would like to know when we will have a government that will break the trend and stop thieving and taking money (Corruption children)? Yours sincerely, Martin Newbold Attachments 2026-05-18 - Where is Emily.pdf On Mon, May 18, 2026 at

Thank you for your response. I understand the constituency casework convention. However, I am not asking you to act as my local constituency MP. I am asking for public-interest Parliamentary signposting concerning my missing daughter, child-services records, family-court safeguards, obstruction when contacting MPs, and the correct route for Parliamentary scrutiny. Please confirm whether you are refusing only to process this as personal constituency casework, or whether you are also refusing to signpost the correct Parliamentary, ministerial, committee, standards, safeguarding, or democratic-access route. If you cannot assist directly, please identify the correct route to which this should n...

Urgent Intervention

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: office@twyford.ealing.sch.uk, office@adalovelace.org.uk, hol@parliament.co.uk, info@louisetaylor.co.uk

Martin Newbold Attachments 11:42 AM (2 minutes ago) to office, office, hol, info Request to consider Annie Hudson safeguarding review in relation to disputed social-services records Dear Sir/Madam, I am writing to ask that the findings associated with Annie Hudson's child safeguarding review are considered in relation to my ongoing concerns about social-services records, disputed decision-making, and the treatment of children and parents where records are incomplete, redacted, unaudited, or inaccurate. The review reported serious systemic issues in child safeguarding practice, including children being ignored or disbelieved and risks being minimised. That is directly relevant to my concern:...

Dear Member of Parliament, Urgent County Enquiry Emily Newbold DOB 30/06/2006 - Urgent Intervention About Emily - <https://stealingofamily.world/about/> Dear MP, Immediate explanation required: shadow-banning of MP correspondence I require an immediate explanation as to why my correspondence appears to be being shadow-banned. My video, Run Children Run Run Run by Martin Newbold, concerns my missing daughter, Emily, and wider safeguarding, Department for Education, police disclosure, and inter-agency record issues. https://www.stealingofamily.world/Youtoob/yt_play/index.php?id=v309&group=1&list=The+Stealing+of+Emily&playlist=The+Stealing+of+Emily For the record: I have contacted 640 MPs regard...

Dear Member of Parliament, Urgent County Enquiry Emily Newbold DOB 30/06/2006 - Urgent Intervention About Emily -
<https://stealingofamily.world/about/> Immediate explanation required: shadow-banning of MP correspondence Department for Education communications have informed me that my daughter Emily is in care until the age of 25, and have also indicated that she is connected to a school in Tonbridge, Kent. At the same time, previous NHS correspondence indicates that Emily is not locatable on the NHS system through normal reasonable searches. This creates an urgent safeguarding and records contradiction: one public authority appears to indicate that Emily is known within education/care arrang...

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: DPO@eastsussex.gov.uk

Dear Tracey Wallace / Data Protection Officer, Thank you for acknowledging receipt of my earlier email. Please confirm the named officer, job title, team, and contact route for the person within East Sussex County Council who is responsible for dealing with the traceability issue raised in my previous correspondence. Please also provide the reference number under which this matter is now being handled. If East Sussex County Council says this is not its responsibility, please confirm which public authority the matter has been referred to and the named officer or team responsible there. This is a safeguarding and traceability matter. Please ensure it is placed before the relevant safeguarding...

Email | From: Martin Newbold <martinnewbold.mn@gmail.com> | To: customer.complaints@education.gov.uk

Dear Department for Education Complaints Team, I am writing to ask why my complaint has not been answered. Please confirm by email: The reference number for my complaint. The date my complaint was received. The team or officer currently responsible for handling it. Why I have not received a substantive answer. When I will receive a substantive response. If the Department for Education says it is not responsible, the public authority or team to whom the matter has been referred. Please do not treat this as a new complaint if an existing complaint is already open. Please link this email to the existing complaint trail and provide the reference number. Kind regards, Martin Newbold

Not Lifted Out of Poverty — Removed From View "This is not only a poverty claim. Poverty, missed school and unmet need are the entry points by which social services justify intervention. If reports are exaggerated, and the child is then moved, removed from school/virtual-school visibility, and parent contact is stopped. The Labour Government claims it can count "half a million children" being lifted out of poverty. Earlier Labour/DfE policy helped create centralised children's services systems, targets, and reporting structures. You allege those systems were used to produce exaggerated social-work reports, remove children to different addresses, restrict parent contact, and then leave parent...

Dear Sir/Madam I write humbly to your office for help in respect to my daughter Emuily Newbold otherwise known as About – The Stealing of Emily I refer to the core piece of European law they run into is Regulation (EU) 2019/1111, known widely as Brussels II ter. This regulation is supposed to dictate how different countries handle cross-border child abductions and custody enforcement. However, groups like Missing Children Europe frequently lobby the European Parliament because the system breaks down when domestic courts hide behind closed-door procedures or manipulate digital records, effectively preventing transparent cross-border tracking. I then write respectfully to seek assistance rega...

Re: Emily Newbold – Clarification Required Dear Detective Superintendent Hyder, Thank you for your email. I am seeking clarification regarding your statement that Surrey Police are not, and have never been, part of any investigation concerning Emily. On 20 May 2026, I spoke with Officer Ellen, badge number 18592, for approximately 30 minutes. During that conversation, I was informed that the information I had provided would be placed before Inspector 40550. I therefore understand that Surrey Police received and assessed information relating to Emily and that the matter was escalated internally to an Inspector for consideration. I appreciate that this may not have resulted in the opening of...

Dear Helena Dollimore MP, I am writing to ask a straightforward question. Without those things, trust becomes little more than a demand for obedience. For many years I have sought answers regarding my daughter, Emily Catherine Newbold-Smith. During that time I have encountered a system that frequently makes assurances but rarely produces evidence. I have been told not to worry. I have been told that professionals are satisfied. I have been told that processes have been followed. I have been told that various agencies have considered matters. Yet when simple questions are asked, answers become remarkably difficult to obtain. Where is the evidence? Who verified the information? When was it ve...

Well, you don’t answer anyone, so your message is quite unbelievable. Why are you in business if you cannot simply answer emails, let alone answer complaints? Where is my complaint number? If any of the authorities involved had done anything positive 19 years ago, when Emily was only 4 years old, we would not be seeing this happening yet again. This child is dead, or feared dead, because of neglect, delay, and the complete failure of the systems that were supposed to protect her. That is my position, and Social Work England needs to explain why serious safeguarding complaints are ignored, delayed, or buried. Is my daughter and her sister dead too? Dear Prime Minister, Is it correct to assume that the UK government no longer protects children and hides behind parliamentary privileges instead of acting on social save guarding and there for the government is a "gang of pedo's" as suggested by the opposition in parliament in February 2026 ? Where is Emily my daughter? Is she dead or alive? See message sent to all MP <https://www.stealingofamily.world/?id=1747> Attachments 2026%20The+Rape+Gang+Inquiry+Report.pdf Warm regards, Martin Newbold www.martinnewbold.co.uk www.thestealingofamily.co.uk stealingofamily.world For the record: I have contacted 640 MPs regarding my missing daughter, Emily, and I have received a reply from each MP. Mandy Cashmore Information and Records Officer T: 0330 403 4734 "It is my position that the proceedings concerning Emily were coram non judice because the court lacked the necessary jurisdiction to determine the matter." Warm regards, Martin Newbold www.martinnewbold.co.uk www.thestealingofamily.co.uk stealingofamily.world For the record: I have contacted 640 MPs regarding my missing daughter, Emily, and I have received a reply from each MP. This matter is now also part of my complaint to the Department for Education. Approximately 640 MPs were contacted regarding a safeguarding concern relating to Emily Newbold and wider child traceability issues. This generated approximately 3,200 em...

Lucy Powell Secretary of State for Education You seem to be using a parliamentary excuse instead of safeguarding children and my daughter, Emily. I have asked you to establish her location because individuals in Northern Ireland stated in a public video that my daughter was in education, while Social Work Northern Ireland has been unable to identify her location. My daughter, along with other children from East Sussex, was abducted by your government. Can you please explain whether you are a member of the Fabian Society and are therefore allegedly another criminal hiding in sheep's clothing—pretending to perform your official role while, in reality, acting as another child abductor? The DCS...

Subject: Formal notice: failure of delivery to your Department for Education address and request for investigation Dear Lucy Powell, I am writing regarding the failure of an email sent to you at: lucy.powell@education.gov.uk The non-delivery report states that the address "wasn't found at education.gov.uk." However, this was not an immediate rejection of an unknown address. The technical report shows that my email was accepted into Microsoft's mail infrastructure and repeatedly routed through Microsoft inbound, outbound and European-production servers before being rejected for exceeding the permitted number of hops. The recorded error was: 554 5.4.14 Hop count exceeded – possible mail loop...

Dear Lucy, Congratulations on your new post as Secretary of State for Education. Please confirm that you are the woman who will now be serving as Secretary of State for Education. I am concerned that you may be in dereliction of your duty. Can you please provide details of your indemnity insurance? Indemnity insurance may be relevant where a person's action or inaction has caused harm, loss or damage, or where there are concerns that a man or woman is not performing the duties, obligations and responsibilities for which they are being paid. Subject: Formal complaint and request for indemnity insurance information Dear Ms Powell, I telephoned the Department for Education and asked for your indemnity insurance. During that call, I was instructed to put my complaint and request in writing to this customer complaint address. I am therefore formally requesting details of the indemnity insurance or other indemnity arrangements applicable to you in your role as Secretary of State for Education and to those acting on behalf of the Department. My request arises from concerns that actions or failures to act may have caused harm, loss or damage, and that the duties, obligations and responsibilities attached to the relevant public offices...

The Rt Hon Lucy Powell MP Secretary of State for Education Department for Education Sanctuary Buildings Great Smith Street London SW1P 3BT I have asked you for your personal indemnity insurance which is presumably with Zurich I identified that when Lucy Powell acts as the MP for Manchester Central, parliamentary convention normally prevents you from taking over another MP's individual constituency casework. The House of Commons Library describes this as a convention of constituency etiquette, under which constituents ordinarily approach their own MP. It is not a general Act of Parliament prohibiting all contact from people outside her constituency. However, I contacted her in her separate c...
